Maria Medina - CulturedSocial.org

Maria Medina founded CulturedSocial.org based on the seventeen countries she has traveled. She is inspired by the colorful stories and traditions of various cultures. Working on national and international projects since 2009, today much of her work in digital marketing has been curated and deployed based on her roots as a designer and her inspiration from travel abroad. Maria is currently working with Bright River Productions on marketing and business development for a Hollywood feature, being shot right here in Santa Cruz
